Brussels. Rezidor SAS Hospitality announces the first Park Inn property in Berlin, as of January 1st, 2003. Park Inn Berlin - Alexanderplatz, the former Forum Hotel, is located on the historic Alexanderplatz, near the Parliament and within short walking distance to landmark sites such as the Dome, "Unter den Linden" Boulevard, the Brandenburg gate and Nikolai quarter.

"This 1006 room, 37-story hotel in the new capital of Germany is a great beginning for this international three-star hospitality brand in Europe, which currently has over 50 hotels in North America," says Fredrik Korallus, Senior Vice President & COO of Park Inn.

Kurt Ritter, President & CEO of Rezidor SAS Hospitality, adds: "I am proud to announce this first Park Inn hotel just three months after concluding the master franchise agreement for this brand with Carlson Hotels Worldwide (CHW)."

This highest hotel in Berlin offers superior rooms and 12 suites also with magnificent views over the entire city. Facilities include two restaurants, a bar, a Casino on the top floor, eight meeting rooms for up to 320 people and a wellness- and business center.
